Training Session open to all members.

Victorian MP Jeff Bourman and his wife Nicole have offered to conduct a training session on "How to run and budget for an Election"

The first time the party (SFP Vic) decided to run candidates in the Upper House election they won two seats with a 3rd very close. They ran a very successful campaign we can now benefit from this experience.

Training is on the 8th July time and venue to be advised.

You as a member are invited to this session. Please advise if attending.
